Day". The senior float proved its point as it emerged the winning entry in a classy field of floats. The huge senior float made of thousands of paper flowers had stiff competition from the other entries and made the decision of the judges most difficult. Unfortunately, the moving up of Veterans' Day prevented the floats from appearing in the Veterans' Day parade where they have been spectacular additions to the parade in other years, richly deserving an encore appearance.

Bottom photo - at centerfield, halftime, David Hagen presents the homecoming queen Melinda Johnson with a bouquet as he presents her to the fans as the newly crowned reigning queen of the day. Miss Johnson was crowned by her predecessor Miss Cheryl Brooks. Other photos of Bulldog Day and story on Page 8.

OLD HAMMONDTOWN SPECIFICATIONS

A letter was received from Stephen E. Hart, School Plant Specialist from the Massachusetts Department of Education, informing the Board that Center School will be considered separately from the planned addition to Old Hammondtown School. Preliminary specifications for Old Hammondtown calls for 4 classes in each of grades 4, 5 and 6, for a 300 pupil total.

BUS LINE REQUEST

The Bonanza Bus Line has requested a license to operate buses through Mattapoisett on I-195 from the Fairhaven to the Marion line in both directions. The company presently operates through the town on Route 6 and requests the change in the interest of reducing traffic on the old road.

BULLETIN RECEIVED

A bulletin from the Massachusetts' Selectmen's Association was received stating that the Governor has returned House Bill 1086 to the legislature asking that the bill be amended to require local acceptance before the law becomes operative. The Association urged fast support of the Governor's recommendation providing for local acceptance.

Meeting Teachers Urged

PARENT CONFERENCES ENCOURAGED

In place of a formal Open House at Old Hammondtown School this year, individual parent conferences are strongly recommended. Progress reports have been sent home indicating those areas where students are deficient. Many parents have responded and individual conferences have been set up for them. Clockwise from top left - the Junior float featuring a football kicked squarely between the goal posts by a Bulldog (naturally) with a referee signaling the score and a cheerleader leading the victory chant. This float, made of paper flowers, cleverly used balloons with faces painted on them to depict fans in the stands. (Top right) - Homecoming queen Melinda Johnson just after the crowning ceremonies. (Bottom right) - the excellent animated entry of the Freshmen class. The Seekonk dog catcher guns his Rolls Royce, with spinning wheels and smoking exhaust, as he chases in vain the Old Rochester bulldog with net extended.

and even though the Bulldogs went down to defeat at the hands of Seekonk 14 to 6 it did not dampen the enthusiasm and spirit of the Bulldog fans. Halftime festivities included a parade of floats made by students in each class and homecoming queen candidates.

Two fumbles by the Bulldogs set up the 2 touchdowns made by the Seekonk Warriors. Old Rochester received the opening kickoff but on the first play from scrimmage fumbled and Seekonk recovered on the O.R. 23. Seven plays later Dave Caracciolo scored 6 for the visitors aided by a fourth down pass from quarterback Mike Emond to Mike Linton on the 8. The 2-point conversion try was no good and the score was 6 to 0.

Old Rochester struck late in the first quarter with a drive that started on their own 29. On a long run Warren Mott took the ball to the Seekonk 37. Dave Crowley ran it to the 14 and 4 plays later Peter Nelson ran into the end zone for 6 with 15 seconds left on the clock in the first quarter. A pass from quarterback Joe Francoeur for the 2-point conversion was no good and the game was tied 6 all.

recovered on the O.R. 48. Seekonk moved the ball to the Old Rochester 12 in 12 plays and the quarter ended. On the first play of the 4th quarter Emond hit John Murphy in the end zone for 6 more. Emond then ran in for the 2 point conversion making the score 14 to 6 - the final scoring for the day.

Old Rochester threatened on the next series of downs by moving the ball to the Seekonk 21 but then fumbled and Seekonk recovered to stop the drive.

This Saturday Old Rochester plays host to the Fairhaven Blue Devils.

Miss Cheryl Brooks, last year's homecoming queen, crowned her successor, Miss Melinda Johnson, a sophomore. Other candidates included: Gail Haskell, a senior; Kim Rae Dennis, a junior; Jenny Randall, a freshman; and Justine Whalen, representing the Junior High School.

Trophy for the winning float went to the senior class and the second prize went to the junior class. Attendance prize went to the 8th grade.

Judges were: Mrs. Charles Suesens, Mrs. Marcia Ingraham, Miss Alice Phinney, Milton Delano and Philip Kelsey.

Letter of Thanks

OPEN LETTER TO THE MATTAPoisETT
POLICE DEPARTMENT

A thank you for the assistance and aid rendered to me in the accident that occurred in town on October 15th.

In minutes three police cars appeared on the scene promptly. Officer Heuberger and Chief Deputy Duane Tuttle were most kind and considerate. Words cannot properly express my thanks to him as he took charge and to Detective Robert Moore who drove me for treatment.

Also thanks to Officer Santos and other members of the Police Department for their assistance. Mattapoisett is fortunate indeed to have such an excellent force. Every man is efficient, helpful and courteous. They are the strong links in that chain that makes the Mattapoisett Police Department one that inspires trust and praise with confidence of the people of Mattapoisett.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Gloria Rounds

P.S. It is also very commendable that the Board of Selectmen realized the qualities of Detective Robert G. Moore by promoting him to Detective Sergeant.

New Era

It was a bittersweet happening on Saturday morning as passersby watched a landmark disappear from the corner of Barstow and Hammond Streets. The old St. Anthony's Church was demolished to reveal the entrance of the newly built St. Anthony's Church in a way never before seen. Parishioners were overcome with a flood of memories, some happy, some sad, as they watched the old structure disappear with amazing rapidity. The old church had withstood many a storm and many a change since it was built by the small initial group of predominately Portuguese residents on land donated by the late Dennis Mahoney. It was originally built as a one floor structure and later a basement was dug and the church raised to a higher level on this foundation. Additions were added to form its final proportions. The parishioners have realized a successful building effort and have occupied the handsome new St. Anthony's and the site of the old structure.

MARION ART CENTER OPENS SEASON WITH PULITZER WINNING PLAY

"THE EFFECT OF GAMMA RAYS ON MAN-in-the-MOON MARIGOLDS" will be presented at the Marion Art Center on Friday and Saturday, November 9, 10, 16 and 17 at 8:30 P.M. The Paul Zindel play, winner of many awards, is being directed by Dick Foren of Marion, and promises to be a rewarding evening of theatre. The all female cast includes Kay Sweeney, Peg Dyer, Gail Swain, C. C. Dyer and Kim Barry. The story is a study of an embittered, vindictive widow and her two daughters; and the timeless lesson that something beautiful can emerge from even the most barren soil is the root of this powerful and moving play.

November 14. The day-long event will open at 9:30 and continue through the late afternoon.

Rear Admiral Lee Harrington, Academy President, will extend a welcome to those attending the convocation.

Other speakers will include Capt. Frederick J. Hancox of Falmouth, Academic Dean; Lt. Thomas F. Dorsey of Falmouth, assistant professor in the Department of Social Sciences and Placement officer; Capt. Ralph N. Levesque, of Middleboro, Commandant of Cadets; Lt. Bernard L. Gilmetti of Po-casset, head of the Department of Physical Education; Cmdr. Thomas S. Lee of Bridgewater, Director of Admissions; Lt. Victor Lindblom, Buzzards Bay, Financial Aid officers; and Capt. Walter J. Eno, Buzzards Bay, Director of Planning and Development.

Cmdr. Lee said invitations have gone out to more than 1050 school officials in the six state area.

The day will begin with registration and be followed by tours of the new training ship, "Bay State", the Athletic Center, Residence Halls, Classrooms, oceanographic laboratory, library, television studio, science and administration facilities, and the computer center.

A review of cadets, color guard and band will take place on the parade ground prior to the luncheon.

At the afternoon program, the speakers will outline the unique opportunities for expanding education at the Academy.
